I just want to say thank you both for your help. Parts of the experience were really hard. I appreciate your always treating me with respect, and I appreciate your hard work.

This card is a photo of a homemade quilt called "Texas Star". You both deserve that title. I've been in Madison over a month, and I love it. It's like Austin only smaller. Take care, and good luck.

Sincerely

Isabel Gustman

Dear Charles:

I wanted to drop a quick note to say thanks to you and your staff for helping me to successfully complete my Chapter 7 Bankruptcy filing.

You and your staff were always there for me answering all of my questions in a timely, courteous, and professional manner.

I would be glad to recommend you to anyone I know who might need your services.

Sincerely,

Paul D. Martin

Thank you

Mr. Nettles and Abigail:

We received the good news in the mail yesterday that our Chapter 7 Bankruptcy has been discharged. We can't thank the two of you enough for all the work that was put into this. We greatly appreciate the patience with all the calls that were made and all the faxes that were sent.

From our family to yours we wish you and yours a wonderful Thanksgiving and Christmas Holiday.

Kindly,
Sharon & John Casper
